Behold the Lamb who bears our sins away,
Slain for us – and we remember
The promise made that all who come in faith
Find forgiveness at the cross.
So we share in this bread of life,
And we drink of His sacrifice
As a sign of our bonds of peace
Around the table of the King.

The body of our Saviour Jesus Christ,
Torn for you – eat and remember
The wounds that heal, the death that brings us life
Paid the price to make us one.
So we share in this bread of life,
And we drink of His sacrifice
As a sign of our bonds of love
Around the table of the King.

The blood that cleanses every stain of sin,
Shed for you – drink and remember
He drained death's cup that all may enter in
To receive the life of God.
So we share in this bread of life,
And we drink of His sacrifice
As a sign of our bonds of grace
Around the table of the King.

"A Lamb Goes Uncomplaining Forth" by Paul Gerhardt, 1607-1676

A Lamb goes uncomplaining forth,
To save a world sinners;
He bears the burden all alone,
Dies shorn of all His honor.
He goes to slaughter, weak and faint,
Is led to die without complaint;
His spotless life He offers;
He bears the shame, the stripes, the wrath;
His anguish, mockery, and death
For us He gladly suffers.

This Lamb is Christ, our soul's great Friend,
The Lamb of God, our Savior;
The One, His only Son, God sent
To gain for us His favor.
"Go forth, My Son," the Father said,
"And free my children from their dread
Of death and condemnation.
The painful stripes are hard to bear,
But by Your death they all can share
The joy of Your salvation.
